CANDIDATE TESTING AND APPEAL NOTICE

Thank you for participating in the Washington State International Fire Service Accreditation Congress (IFSAC) certification test. The minimum passing score for the written portion is 80%. The practical portion is graded on a pass/fail basis. You must pass the practical at 100% to be successful.

To receive a Washington State Patrol Fire Protection Bureau Certificate of Competency, you must pass both the written and practical exam within a one-year time frame. Both portions of the exam should be completed within the time frame of the same version of the NFPA standard, and you should have met all required prerequisites. If prerequisites are not met, your test score will be voided.

If you need to schedule a retest or you have questions regarding the prerequisites, please contact your training officer or our office at (360) 596-3945. Prerequisites for each level of certification are posted on the website at <http://www.wsp.wa.gov/fire/accredit.htm>.

You have the right to appeal the testing process. Your appeal must be submitted in writing to Accreditation and Certification Program. To appeal the practical, you must submit a written appeal to our office within 30 days of your practical exam. To appeal your written score, you must submit a written appeal to our office within 30 days of receiving your written test results notice.

If you have questions regarding the testing or appeal process, please call (360) 596-3945 or e-mail ifsacquestions@wsp.wa.gov.
